Itinerary of your cruise

Day 1 - Saturday Athens	The Greek capital opens the pages of its age-old history. In the heart of modernity, the Acropolis and the narrow streets of the Plaka district reveal their splendour and charm. Ship docked in port.
Day 2 - Sunday Hydra	Hydra is unique: no cars or other motor vehicles are allowed on the island. It was especially popular with artists in the 1950s, and it's not hard to see why. The port and bastions are stunning, and the labyrinthine, bougainvillea-filled streets are simply beautiful.
Day 3 - Monday Sifnos	The iconic symbol of Cycladean chic, this elegant island, full of contrasts, offers arid mountain landscapes that rub shoulders with lush green valleys, and monasteries that tower above the fine sandy beaches. Ship at anchor, water sports available.
Day 4 - Tuesday Delos & Mykonos	Morning in Delos at anchor. The birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, with an archaeological site that is one of the most important in Greece. Short voyage to Mykonos in the middle of the day. The smallest island in the Cyclades owes its popularity to its row of windmills, its immaculate monasteries and its secret beaches. Late port of call. Ship at anchor, water sports available.
Day 5 - Wednesday Patmos	The Monastery of Saint John the Theologian, founded in 1088, is the most famous sight on Patmos. This island paradise also has long sandy beaches and picturesque villages, with houses in the traditional Dodecanese style. Ship at anchor, water sports available.
Day 6 - Thursday Kos	Hippocrates, the father of medicine, was born on this verdant island. Crystal-clear waters, pretty beaches and a peaceful atmosphere make it the highlight of the Dodecanese. Ship docked, no water sports.
Day 7 - Friday Kekova	At the edge of the perfectly clear waters lies a sleepy town. Experience the contrast of a tranquil swim in the sea followed by exploring the untamed mountains to find traces of the ancient region of Lycia. Ship at anchor, water sports available.
Day 8 - Saturday Antalya	Nicknamed the "Turkish Riviera", this seaside resort, which is the most popular in the country, is home to an old city which contains fine examples of local architecture, beautifully carved woodwork, mosques, etc. Ship docked, no water sports. Boarding and disembarkation port of call.

Excursions of your cruise

Day 1 - Saturday Athens - Acropolis Museum (1/2 day, afternoon) *	1/2 day. Bus followed by visit on foot Don't miss this opportunity to visit the new Acropolis Museum, which opened in June 2009, where you can see the immense archeological heritage of this incredible site including the Caryatids and the Parthenon Frieze. After the musuem visit you'll be given a panoramic tour of Greece's fascinating capital city!
Day 5 - Wednesday Patmos (1/2 day, morning) *	The Jerusalem of the Aegean! Between Skala and Chora, see the sacred cave where St John is thought to have described his vision of the apocalypse. Then visit the St John monastery and museum in Chora. Founded in 1088, the monastery was a real Medieval fortress, and the museum contains a fragment of St Mark's gospel.
Day 6 - Thursday Kos / Asklepion (1/2 day, morning) *	On the slopes of the hill that dominates the Kos plain, this important sanctuary was consecrated to Asclepius, the healing God and son of Apollo. Built towards the end of the 4th century BC, it was a famous religious and medical centre, as was Epidauros more generally. After your visit, travel to the traditional village of Zia on Mount Dikaïos, and take in the panoramic view of the entire island.
Day 7 - Friday Kekova / Myra (half day, morning) *	Myra was one of the most powerful cities in the Lycian League. Discover monuments with rich and varied histories: large cave tombs, the most beautiful troglodyte burial sites in Lycia, the Roman theatre and the Church of St Nicolas, patron saint of children and bishop of Myra in the 4th century.
Day 7 - Friday Kekova / Kalekoy (half day) *	Take a gulet to the picturesque village of Kalekoy, built on the acropolis of the ancient city of Simena. From the top of its medieval castle, take in the magnificent view of the entire bay. A Lycian tomb sits solitary in the middle of the water, an emblematic image of this most charming part of the bay.

* Excursion available during and after the booking of your cruise
